

COURSE INFORMATION SHEET

DATE OF ISSUE: March 2024

THE CONCEPT OF IMMOVABLE PROPERTY IN MALTESE TAX LAW

WEDNESDAY 24 APRIL 2024

MALTA UNIVERSITY CONSULTING

Date:	Wednesday 24 April 2024
Time	14:00 – 17:00
Number of Hours	3 hours
Online	Online via Zoom
Fee	€50 €40 UM students €55 after the deadline
Deadline	Friday 19 April 2024
	The Department of Accountancy – University of Malta – in collaboration with Malta University Consulting is holding the fifth CPE seminar for 2024 which qualifies for 3 hours (Core Competencies) of Continued Professional Education.
Content of Seminar	Tax legislation has developed through the years, however the concept of immovable property remained central in Maltese tax law and is often regarded as a significant taxing point. Owning or transferring immovable property situated in Malta has significant tax implications to property owners being either corporates or individuals as well as prospective buyers. This seminar will focus on the taxation aspects of immovable property both from an income tax and duty on documents perspective. It aims to provide an understanding of the tax treatment of various transactions dealing with ownership and transfers of immovable property situated in Malta in various circumstances. The seminar shall highlight the salient notions outlined in Maltese tax law. An overview of the recent developments shall be provided highlighting the practical and interpretative issues. A selection of practical examples shall be used to demonstrate the concepts under review whilst specific anti-avoidance legislation will also be discussed.
Speaker's Bio	Mr. Roderick Borg is an accountant by profession. He joined the tax function of KPMG after graduating with a first class degree in both the B. Com course and the B. Accty (Hons.) course from the University of Malta. In 2010, Mr Borg was awarded the diploma in taxation with distinction from the Malta Institute of Taxation. He is currently a Director involved in the provision of direct and indirect tax compliance and advisory services to domestic and international corporate and individual clients. He advises organisations and individuals on various tax matters relating to cross-border and domestic transactions. He assists clients with the implementation of restructuring processes and actively handles corporate liquidation issues. Roderick regularly delivers training courses relating to tax matters He also delivers lectures in various seminars and professional educational activities relating to taxation matters including taxation modules to students reading for their ACCA qualification.
Certification	Attendees will receive a Certificate of Attendance from Malta University Consulting.

For further information kindly contact Malta University Consulting Ltd, Campus Hub, Block 'O' Level 7, University of Malta, Msida.

Tel: 21240746; Website: www.maltaconsulting.mt; Email: trainingservices@muhc.com.mt