	The Department of Accountancy – University of Malta – in collaboration with Malta University Consulting is holding this CPE seminar which qualifies for 3 hours (Core Competencies) of Continued Professional Education.
Seminar content	This session will equip professional accountants with practical, factual, and up-to-date insights into the parameters that shape the assessment of contributory pensions, including the most recent updates announced in Budget 2026. Participants will gain a clear understanding of how these factors influence both current and future pension entitlements, together with an overview of other key social security provisions relevant to their professional practice.
Speaker's Bio	Mr Mark Musu' joined the Public Service in 1986 and has since held a wide range of roles within the Ministry for the Family and Social Solidarity and the Department of Social Security. In December 2005, he was appointed Director for EU & International Affairs, followed by his appointment in November 2008 as Director (Strategic Development and International Relations) within the Department of Social Security. In November 2012, he assumed the role of Director (Pensions Strategy). Mr Musu' was appointed Permanent Secretary in March 2013 within the Ministry for the Family and Social Solidarity. He has been reconfirmed in this position four times, most recently in March 2026, serving as Permanent Secretary in the Ministry for Social Policy and the Family. During this time, he has also concurrently served as Permanent Secretary within the Ministry for Social and Affordable Accommodation and the Ministry for Inclusion and the Voluntary Sector, as well as Deputy Chairperson of the MCESD. He also serves as Chairperson of the Pensions Strategy Group, which was responsible for delivering the latest strategic review report of 2025 aimed at ensuring the adequacy and sustainability of Malta's pension system, and forms an integral part of the Low Wage Commission.
Certification	Upon successfully attending and completing this 3-hour Accountancy CPE Seminar, participants will receive a Certificate of Attendance issued by Malta University Consulting.
